

Kahr Firearms Group Announces The Cold Dead Hands 1911!

Press Release: 3/27/22

Shall Not Be Infringed

Greeley, PA: For many American gun owners, the statement “from my cold, dead hands” sums up their sentiment about the Right to Keep and Bear Arms. It is an essential part of our freedom. Auto-Ordnance’s “Cold Dead Hands 1911” boldly issues that statement, in American made steel. This latest patriotic commemorative pistol, warns all tyrants to tread on American liberty at their peril. The talented artists with Outlaw Ordnance added their touch to this custom firearm, making it a strong illustration of support for the Second Amendment. The Cold Dead Hands 1911 features a coiled serpent and skull engraved on its aluminum grips, with the statement “Pry it From My Cold Dead Hands”. “Shall not be infringed” is engraved on the left side of the slide, and “76” is circled with thirteen stars on the right. The Cold Dead Hands 1911 starts as an Auto-Ordnance Stainless a 5” Auto-Ordnance Stainless 1911, chambered in .45 ACP. Its slide and frame are stainless steel, with TruGlo® night sights, full length guide rod, high sweep beavertail, skeletonized trigger, checkered front strap, serrated and ported slide, with a match grade barrel. The finish is a custom Cerakote mix of Light Sand and Plum Brown, completed with a weathered effect. It is made entirely in the United States. One seven round magazine is included.
