

A Tribute to the Few and the Proud: The 250th Anniversary Marines Commemorative Carbine

This product is a special edition, semi-automatic Thompson M1 carbine meticulously customized by the artists at Altered Arsenal to commemorate the 250th anniversary of the Marines. The rifle immediately stands out with its presentation-grade, Cerakote two-tone receiver, featuring a matte black upper and a contrasting white lower. The left side is boldly emblazoned with the name "MARINES", applied in a durable and vibrant USMC Red Cerakote finish. The right side features elegant engravings of "250TH ANNIVERSARY" and a commemorative crest. In a unique tribute, the top of the receiver is adorned with a custom design of red and gold that artfully evokes the iconic Marine Corps Dress Blue uniform.

The firearm is fitted with custom wood furniture, with each piece detailed with historical battle scenes. The handsome wood fore grip is engraved with "U.S.", and "250 Years of Service" on the buttstock. As a whole, this carbine is a carefully crafted collector's item designed for display. Every detail, from the specific Cerakote colors to the custom engravings on the wood and metal, are intended to honor the history, legacy, and spirit of the Marines. Each gun is chambered in .45 ACP, with one 20 and one 30 round stick magazine included.

A Sailor's Pride: The Navy Commemorative Thompson M1 Carbine

Honor the unwavering spirit and enduring legacy of the Navy with this magnificent commemorative Thompson semi-automatic carbine. Artfully detailed by the staff at Altered Arsenal, this special edition piece is a powerful tribute to those who have served and continue to serve at sea.

Featuring a striking all-white Cerakote finish across its barrel and receiver, it evokes the crisp, clean lines of a naval uniform. The classic wood furniture provides a rich contrast, elevating its aesthetic appeal. The left side of the receiver proudly displays "NAVY" in bold, authoritative lettering, a clear declaration of allegiance and service. The right side is dedicated to "250TH ANNIVERSARY" engravings and a commemorative crest, marking a significant milestone in naval history. The top of the receiver bears a distinctive black and gold pattern, a subtle yet profound nod to the distinguished gold braid and buttons found on Navy dress uniforms.

The craftsmanship extends to every detail of the custom wood furniture. The fore grip is beautifully engraved with "U.S." flanked by patriotic stars, symbolizing national pride. The dark, richly textured stock is adorned with an intricate pattern incorporating the "250 Years of Service" commemoration, and historic battle scenes. Anchors adorn the wood grip.

This commemorative Thompson is more than just a firearm; it is a meticulously crafted collector's item, a symbol of honor, and a lasting testament to the dedication of the Navy. Perfect for display, it is an essential acquisition for veterans, active-duty personnel, and collectors who wish to celebrate the brave men and women of the maritime service. Each gun is chambered in .45 ACP, and comes with one 20 and one 30 round magazine.

Press Contacts

Jodi DePorter, Director of Marketing, Kahr Firearms Group

marketing@kahr.com

