

Auto-Ordnance Introduces Classic Thompson T1SB50DH Short-Barreled Rifle

GREELY, PA – AUGUST 10, 2026 – Auto-Ordnance is proud to introduce the model T1SB50DH Short Barreled Rifle (SBR), crafted entirely in the United States. Combining historical Prohibition-era styling with modern precision engineering, this new Thompson variant delivers the authentic look and feel of the legendary "Tommy Gun" in a compact semi-automatic platform. Chambered in proven .45 ACP, the T1SB50DH features a frame and receiver precision-machined from solid steel with a durable blued finish, measuring an overall length of 35 inches and weighing 12 pounds. Its 10.5-inch finned barrel is fitted with a traditional Cutts compensator, bringing the total barrel length to 12.5 inches. Styled with genuine American walnut furniture, including a fixed buttstock, ergonomic pistol grip, and classic horizontal forearm; the rifle is outfitted with a blade front sight and an open adjustable rear sight for precise target acquisition. Each firearm ships equipped with a 50-round drum magazine, and a 20 round stick magazine. It is fully compatible with both types of magazines, offering shooters exceptional flexibility when shooting this legend of American firearms history. SKU: T1SB50DH MSRP: $3,086.
